

HOMEWORK VS STUDY QUIZ

Quiz time, Rock Stars... which of these is homework and which is study? Put them into the table below.

We'll talk about this in the upcoming video called "Homework vs Study", so make sure you do this before you watch the video!

HOMEWORK	STUDY

1. Finishing an English assignment that is due next week
2. Your History teacher has asked you to complete Page 233, question 2, parts a), c) and d)
3. You memorise the first 10 elements of the periodic table because you have a Science test tomorrow
4. You write a "cheat sheet" with all you need to know for a Maths test
5. You learn off by heart the French vocabulary you covered in class today
6. You read over your Economics chapter because you didn't understand it in class
7. You finish off the Geography questions that you didn't quite finish in class
